The Independence Sinfonia is the Philadelphia area's newest community orchestra. Its membership consists of a select group of professional and avocational musicians who attend weekly rehearsals and participate in a series of concerts each year. Its flexible instrumentation allows the investigation of repertoire from chamber sized to full orchestral works. Last year, the orchestra presented a successful season of concerts at St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Elkins Park, and this season plans further concerts throughout the greater Philadelphia area. For more information on the Independence Sinfonia's activities, and details for the future concerts, or if you would like to be placed on our mailing list, kindly call Dr. Bill Fullard, Sinfonia President, at (215)836-2240.

Jack Moore, Music Director of the Independence Sinfonia, is quite active in the Philadelphia area. Since 1980, he has been conductor of the South Shore Symphony Orchestra, in Ocean City, NJ. In 1995, he was named Conductor of the Ambler Symphony, and awarded the position of Assistant Conductor of the Orchestra Society of Philadelphia. He has just returned from Europe, where he studied with František Vájnár and Otakar Trhлік in the Czech Republic, and appeared in concert with the Filharmonie Hradec Kralové; and with Alexander Polistchuk and Mikhail Kukushin of the St. Petersburg Conservatory in Russia. He also appeared in concert with the St. Petersburg Camerata, in the Hermitage Theater in St. Petersburg. Mr. Moore is also Production Manager/announcer at Classical Music Radio WFLN, 95.7 FM.
