

Our conductor, Jerome Rosen, retired from the Boston Symphony after almost 30 years of performing as a violinist and keyboard player with that orchestra. He is a graduate of the Curtis Institute of Music and has served as an assistant conductor with the Cleveland Orchestra and as a performer and soloist with the Cleveland, Detroit, and Boston Symphony Orchestras, the Boston Pops, as well as with the Marlboro and Casals Festivals. We are delighted to announce that Mr. Rosen has been appointed as Music Director and Conductor of the Independence Sinfonia for the 2009-2010 season.

The Independence Sinfonia will repeat today's program at Saint Peter's Episcopal Church in Medford, NJ on June 14, 2009 at 4 PM, sponsored by the Medford Cultural Arts Commission.

The Independence Sinfonia, now in its thirteenth season, is comprised of talented musicians from the Delaware Valley. The players range in age from students to retirees, and we are all united in our love for the performance of fine literature for orchestra. The Sinfonia is a non-profit 501(c)(3) community organization and welcomes your donations and support as volunteers in the furtherance of our artistic mission. For more information, please contact:
