
The Independence Sinfonia is fortunate to have Jerome Rosen as our music director. Mr. Rosen graduated from the Curtis Institute of Music with an Artist's Diploma in violin and from the Cleveland Institute of Music with a Bachelor's in Music. Mr. Rosen's 40-year professional career has been with some of the world's leading orchestras. He spent 27 years as a violinist and keyboardist with the Boston Symphony Orchestra, from which he retired in 1999. He has also held the position of Concertmaster of the Boston Pops (where he occasionally functioned as an arranger), Associate Concertmaster in the Detroit Symphony, and has been a member of the Cleveland Orchestra, the American Symphony, the New School Chamber Orchestra and Festival Casals. Mr. Rosen's piano experience includes rehearsal accompanist for Cleveland Orchestra Chorus under Robert Shaw and rehearsal accompanist for Lake Erie Opera.

Other than music, his hobbies and interests include mathematics and philosophy, computer science, and poetry. His ambitions include getting through the Fugue of Beethoven op. 106 without breaking down, establishing a chamber music series in Jersey City, and writing a memoir. Mr. Rosen currently resides in Jersey City, to which he moved in 2007 in order to be near his granddaughter.

The Independence Sinfonia, now in its fourteenth season, is a non-profit 501(c)(3) community organization and welcomes your donations in the furtherance of its artistic mission. For more information, please contact:
